EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Council is seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) from experienced contractors who can undertake fire prevention works for the upcoming 2026/2027 Fire Danger Season.

There are two divisions for work:

1. Private works for landowners
2. Council works – Contractors must be registered to undertake these works on behalf of Council

Interested parties are invited to submit their EOI for Bush Fire Prevention Works to kicouncil@kicouncil.sa.gov.au no later than 5:00pm on Monday, 7 September 2026.

NOVELS & NIBBLES: AUTHOR TALK WITH LAINIE ANDERSON

Thursday 5 November | 2pm
Kingscote Library

History. Mystery. Murder. And a remarkable woman who really lived.

Join Adelaide author and historian Dr Lainie Anderson OAM as she discusses turning fact into fiction with her Petticoat Police Mystery series. Lainie's best-selling novels The Death of Dora Black and Murder on North Terrace are inspired by SA's real-life trailblazer Kate Cocks, who was the first female police officer in the British Empire employed on the same salary as men. Lainie brings history to life through gripping storytelling and rich attention to detail from the early 1900s and the pioneering Women's Police Branch.

An afternoon of fascinating stories, historical intrigue and novels and nibbles!

*Copies of the book Murder on North Terrace are available at the library*

Dr Lainie Anderson OAM is a writer whose 35-year career in journalism and public relations includes 17 years as a columnist with Adelaide's Sunday Mail as well as stints at the Herald Sun and London's The Times. In 2024, Lainie completed a PhD with UniSA, researching the life of Kate Cocks, the inspiration behind her best-selling Petticoat Police Mystery series. Lainie is vice-president of the History Council of SA, board trustee with the History Trust of SA and a state representative on the Federation of Australian Historical Societies.
