-  TEMPORARY DDA PARKING

NOTE:

PEDESTRIAN ACCESS TO DAUNCEY STREET BUSINESSES WILL REMAIN OPEN AT ALL TIMES AND DELIVERIES WILL BE ARRANGED WITH INDIVIDUAL TRADERS

CONTRACTOR:

Dauncey Street Traders Open For Business.

Axiom Projects have returned to Kingscote to finalise works on Dauncey Street from Monday 14 November.

Axiom has advised Dauncey Street will be closed for one week from 14 November 2022, re-opened for two weeks and finally closed for two weeks, weather dependent before works is complete next month.

Parking will be made available in the car park behind the Council Chambers on Osmond Street, with temporary 15-minute and parking for people with disabilities near the Murray Street and Commercial Street ends. Long vehicle parking will be available on the hardstand near the old police station on Kingscote Terrace, this includes boats, trailers, campervans, and trailers.

While the road will be closed for general traffic, access will remain for emergency services and deliveries.

Please note, there will be pedestrian access to all businesses on Dauncey Street during this time. We encourage everyone to support these traders by shopping locally.

Have questions? Please contact Council's Customer Service team on 8553 4500.

GO LOCAL FIRST

SUPPORT DAUNCEY STREET TRADERS

GO LOCAL FIRST

Dauncey Street may be closed to vehicle traffic over the coming weeks but businesses on the main street are operating as normal.

The footpaths are open and priority parking has been made available at both ends of Dauncey Street.

Council is urging the community to support Dauncey Street traders by shopping locally in the lead up to Christmas.

Details of the "Go Local First" campaign that includes incentives and prizes will be announced in the coming week.
