MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

As ANZAC Day approaches, we pause to honour the courage, sacrifice and enduring spirit of our service men and women, past and present. Their legacy continues to shape our nation and our community here on Kangaroo Island.

On behalf of Council, I encourage everyone to take a moment to reflect this ANZAC Day and, if able, to attend a local service.

Lest we forget

Mayor Michael Pengilly

ADVANCE NOTICE OF WORKS

Pratts Road Re-sheeting
Council will soon commence re-sheeting works on Pratts Road (between Stokes Bay Road and North Coast Road) as part of ongoing infrastructure improvements. Works will include vegetation trimming, minor road realignment, stormwater upgrades and resurfacing.

Schedule:
28 April - 30 May 2025

Impacts may include:

- Temporary road closures (local traffic only)
 - Speed restrictions
 - Restricted access for large machinery
 - Increased noise, dust and construction activity
- We appreciate your patience during these important works.

WORKS AND INFRASTRUCTURE UPDATE

Boxer Road – Stormwater Upgrade Works
Stormwater infrastructure upgrades are underway on Boxer Road, between North Coast Road and Springs Road.

Schedule:
20 April – 31 May 2025

The project will improve drainage and strengthen local infrastructure.

What to expect:

- Temporary traffic restrictions
- Increased construction activity on Boxer Road
- More heavy vehicle movements on Emu Bay Road, Boxer Road and Springs Road

Emu Bay Campground – Pruning and Tidy Up
Council's Parks and Gardens Team recently completed pruning and general clean-up works at the Emu Bay Campground to improve the overall amenity and appearance of the area for visitors and campers.

Parndana Town Centre – ANZAC Day Preparations
In the lead-up to ANZAC Day, the Parks and Gardens Team has been hard at work in Parndana. Vegetation has been cleared near the Parndana Memorial, the town centre has been tidied, and sight lines for road users and heavy vehicles have been improved to enhance safety through the area.

Penneshaw Community Health Centre – Building Repairs Underway
Exterior repairs are currently in progress at the Penneshaw Community Health Centre following the identification of defects during a recent building inspection. Works are expected to continue throughout April and be completed by the end of May. Access to the facility will remain available during this time.

Gap Road – Re-sheeting Works
Re-sheeting works are underway on Gap Road. Pavement materials will be fully installed this week, with final trimming to take place after the Easter break. The road will remain open across the Easter period, with speed restrictions in place for the safety of all road users.

Emu Bay Boat Ramp – Drainage Improvements
Council's Civil Team has recently completed drainage upgrades at the Emu Bay Boat Ramp carpark. The existing swale drains have been cleaned and reshaped to improve water flow and reduce pooling after rainfall.
